

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 28. to Saturday June 30. 1711.

Milan, June 12. N. S.

THE Garrisons of our Castle, and all the other fortified Places belonging to this State, have lately been exchanged; the rest of the Forces are continuing their March with great Diligence towards Piedmont, whither the Count de Thaur, who has been lately indispos'd, is preparing to return. They write from Genoa, that the Republick have resolv'd to fit out four Men of War and five Gallies, in order to secure their Trade for the future from the Insults of the French. A Ship come thither in ten Days from Barcelona reports, that General Staremberg had sent the Forces lately arrived there from Italy into Quarters of Refreshment at Mataro, and other adjacent Places. The Departure of the Duke and Dutchess of Anjou for Corella was fix'd for the 10th Instant; but the Duke of Vendome's Departure for the Army was deferred for some Days. However all the Officers in Saragossa were ordered to set out immediately to their respective Commands, on pain of being cashier'd. Our Letters from Turin advise, that a Minister was arrived there from Parma to acquaint the Duke of Savoy with the Differences between his Matter and the Duke of Modena; whereupon his Royal Highness, as Vicar-General of the Empire in Italy, sent and requir'd the two Competitors to dismiss their Troops, and come to an Agreement without any farther Effusion of Blood: And that this Demand of his Royal Highness might have the greater Weight, Count Thaur ordered fifteen hundred Horse under the Command of Count Koninseck to march into the Parmesan, which obliged those Princes to recal their respective Troops; and we are since inform'd that the Matters in Dispute between them are referred to the Arbitration of the Pope and the Great Duke of Tuscany. It is thought his Royal Highness's Troops and those of his Allies will have a general Rendezvous the 22d Instant at Orbassan, all the necessary Measures being taken for that Purpose. They are Transporting great Quantities of Meal to Carmagnole, and preparing a Train of Artillery much larger than has been remembred in these Parts.

Vienna, June 20. N. S. They write from Cassovia in Hungary, that the Baron de Lesselholz, who commands the Blockade of Morgatz, had defeated a large Convoy design'd to have been introduced into that Place, which was still more closely press'd by the Arrival of four Regiments of Horse, two of Foot, and some Granadiers sent to reinforce the Troops appointed for that Blockade. The Governor has sent out six Deputies from the Town, to represent to the General, that they did not expect any Acts of Hostility upon the Approach of the Germans, but rather hoped they would allow the Garrison a reasonable Time to declare themselves. These Letters add, that Prince Ragotzki's Troops desert daily, which, among other things, it was thought would induce him to follow the Example of the other Leaders, and accept of the General Amnesty. Signior Albany the Pope's Nephew is gone from hence to wait on the King of Poland at Carelsbad, whither the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeits is likewise to repair very speedily; this makes it imagined by many People, that some Overtures have been made of a Match between the Prince-Royal of Saxony and one of the Archdutchesses. Signior Albani having conferr'd with his Polish Majesty at Carelsbad, is to proceed from thence to Frankfort, where he is to be present at the Election of a new Emperor. They write from Rome, that the Pope has named a Nuncio for the Court at Barcelona, and that Signior Spinola is appointed to that Employment. A Courier arrived here the 16th Instant with Letters from his Catholick Majesty, containing Instructions for the Administration of Affairs in his Hereditary Countries. On the 15th the Empress Dowager Amelia was taken so ill, that her Life was thought to be in danger, and publick Prayers were thereupon order'd to be put up in all Churches in her Behalf; but having been blooded twice by the Advice of her Physicians, her Majesty is now thought to be in a fair way of Recovery.

Copenhagen, June 23. N. S. The Troops continue their March with all Diligence towards Holstein, and it is not doubted but their design is upon the Swedish Forces in Pomerania. The time of the King's Departure is not yet fix'd, his Majesty having had an Accident, which in all likelihood will delay it for some Days. He lately overturn'd a Chaise which he used to drive himself, and having by that means received some hurt, he has been ever since confined to his Chamber. The Contagious Distemper continues at Elsenore, and all possible Care is taken to prevent it from extending it self to this Place. It does not yet appear by the Weekly Bills that many Persons dye here, and where there is the least Suspicion of any Infection, the Houses are immediately shut up, and all the Persons belonging to them are sent to Saltholm, pursuant to an Order of the Magistracy; which being punctually observed, it raises great Murmurs and Discontents among the Inhabitants. We hear from Stockholm, that the Sicknes is entirely abated in that City, and that the Senate is thereupon returned thither. They write from Jaroslow, that the Conferences between his Czarish Majesty and the King of Poland are finish'd, and that among other things it was resolv'd, That though it was thought convenient for the Poles to keep on the Defensive, the Turks having not declared War against the Republick, yet they shall oblige themselves to maintain a good Body of Troops in the Ukrain; and such Poles as are at present out of the Kingdom, and refuse to return into it by a limited time, shall be declared Rebels, and be proceeded against accordingly. Care will likewise be taken to pay the Troops of the Crown the Arrears due to 'em, and an Express is to be sent to the Ottoman Court to know for what Reason the Turks refuse to admit of an Ambassador from the Republick, and what has induc'd 'em to enter upon such Measures as give the Poles just Grounds to apprehend they are resolv'd to break the Truce of Carlowitz.

Kensington, June 28. Two Addresses from the Council and the Burgeses of Her Majesty's Colony and Dominion of Virginia, having been transmitted to Nathaniel Blakiston, Esq; by Alexander Spilswood, Esq; Her Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the said Colony, and presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Dartmouth, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; Her Majesty was pleas'd to receive the said Addresses very graciously.

Windsor